

Pricing

Firefighters First Tax Services values our clients and believes in fair and transparent pricing. We price our individual tax returns based on the forms used in the tax return. Form pricing is based on the time required to complete and review the form. With form pricing, we are able to provide transparent pricing that considers the complexity of each tax return.

Preparation fees for Forms 990, 1065, 1120 and 1120S begin at $525 and increase from there based on the complexity and time required to prepare the return. We offer free consultations so we can understand the complexity of the return and provide you with a fee estimate before beginning preparation.

Every tax return is different and the forms necessary to complete your tax return may vary from year to year as your tax situation changes. Below is a breakdown of the more common returns and how our pricing works.
